New Lots of Dress Goods and Coatings
From The Great Arlington Mills Trade Sale
At Savings of 1-3 to Nearly 1-2 Price

The balance of our big purchases of Dress Goods from the Arlington Mills Trade Sale held in New York week before last has arrived, and is now on sale at prices that will create even greater buying enthusiasm than last week, when the response broke all records.

The lots we bought consist almost entirely of 54-inch Dress Goods (1 1/2 yards wide), a fact that doubles the importance of the savings. Every new and wanted dress fabric is represented, in the most desirable shades, such as navy blue, brown, green, plum and black. Sale prices are a third to almost a half below established values—and such savings, coupled with new and high-grade qualities, should urge your prompt attendance upon this important dress goods event.
